Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Recollections of a Town Boy at Westminster, 1849-1855 I have been reading with great interest the very carefully compiled and interesting book lately published by Mr. John Sargeant, Annals of Westminster School. The book gives an excellent picture of life at Westminster i up school both past and present, but touches only lightly on the lives of the boys out of school, especially with respect to town boys. The life up College is fairly well described, but life in the boarding-houses is more or less passed over; the reason perhaps being that Mr. Sargeant, not being an old Westminster, had no material in the shape of experiences of his own. When reading his book, old memories kept crowding upon me, and at last I hunted up some sheets of foolscap, and then and there began dotting down these personal recollections of my many pleasant days of school-life during the six years that I was a town boy.
