The bill merely seeks to add to section 1 of the act, after the word Commission, the words, or as an artisan or laborer or other employee engaged in any hazardous work under the Bureau of Mines, the purpose of the proposed legislation being to bring within the meaning of the act those persons engaged in any extra hazardous work, such as the investigations of mine explosions and disasters, and mine rescue work, and certain laboratory work, etc., under the Bureau of Mines, thus placing them on an equality with the employees engaged in more or less dangerous occupations in other branches and departments of the Government service, and extending like benefits to them. The following letter, relative to the bill, has been received by the committee from the Secretary of the Interior: Department Op The Interior, Washington, January 7, 1911. Sir: By direction of the President, I have the honor to submit a draft of a bill amending section 1 of the act of May 30, 1908 (35 Stat., 656), entitled, An act granting to certain employees of the United States the right to receive from it compensation for injuries sustained in the course of their employment. The law, as it now stands, provides that any such employee of the United States shall be entitled to receive, for one year after having incurred an injury in the course...
