Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Homiletical Commentary on the Book of Genesis: Chapters I, to VIII The Book of Genesis is probably the most important contained in the Bible; it forms the basis of all revelation; is necessary to account for the moral condition of man, and his consequent need of redemption by Christ. The history, doctrine, and prophecy of all the inspired writings take their rise in its narrative, and without it would be unintelligible to us. The Book has an Historical importance. It informs us of the creation of the world - of the coming forth of man to inhabit it, and of his development into a family, a tribe, a nation. It also contains the record of many great and influential lives, and presents them with the pictorial vividness, with the simplicity and pathos of primitive times. The great historical divisions of the Book are - 1. The introduction, from chap. i. 1 to chap. ii. 3. 2. The generations of the heavens and the earth, beginning with chap. ii. 4, and extending on through the history...
