Berkley Hardcover, 2000. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: Toronto shopkeeper Lara McClintoch is back--and heading for Ireland--in this thrilling new novel in the "exotically absorbing and culturally colorful" (The Midwest Book Review) series by award-nominee Lyn Hamilton. Lara is in a quaint, seaside town in County Kerry, Ireland, serving as moral support for a friend at the reading of a will. The deceased well-to-do businessman posthumously sends his querulous family and friends on a treasure hunt, with each clue coming from a line of an ancient Celtic poem. Caught up in the spirit of the hunt, Lara goes up against a grieving family that has closed ranks, the riddles of Irish history, and someone who thwarts her at every turn--with murder.
