Jamboroo (Paperback)

By Jimbo Wolfe

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Jamboroo means spree. The author invites the reader to go on a spree with him pursuing a religion that is wild and free rather than dogmatic and restrictive. This collection of essays and sermons kicks off with an essay entitled Making Peace Among Religions Within Myself, which summarizes seven religions concocted to form a personal religion. Next comes a review of a US Supreme Court decision upholding prayers before a town council meeting as proper pluralism. Responding to 9/11, four short essays compare competing types of Islam, tracking the ideology of al-Qaida and favoring the historic type of Islam, which tolerates Christians and Jews as worshiping the same God as Muslims. A sermon celebrates the faith of Rahab the Harlot, a lower-class Canaanite woman who aids the Israelites in overthrowing Canaanite oppressors. Jesus is presented in an essay as a convivial non-violent resister to the Roman Empire, who calls people to change their minds and believe the good news of God's liberating kingdom at hand, contrasting with John the Baptist, an ascetic prophet who rings down God's judgment. Preached...
