Xulon Press. Paperback. Book Condition: New. Paperback. 108 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.0in. x 0.3in. . . If You Faint Not If You Faint Not is a book of poetry, containing twenty poems. It is Reverend Campers desire and prayer that it will be the first in a series to be called the Seasons of Our Lives. This first book is written especially to encourage those who might be familiar with or going through a struggle. For each of the twenty poems there is an accompanying expression that describes the inspiration of the poem and states the message in a non-poetic fashion. . . to additionally encourage the reader not to give up, whatever he or she might be going through. Words create vision and when God envisioned the universe, He spoke the words Let there be, and the world came into existence. When Author and Minister Larry L. Camper envisioned a work to encourage your soul, he collected his writings and poems and penned If You Faint Not. If You Faint Not is part devotion, part reflection and wholly inspirational! Reverend Campers commitment to his Lord and Savior Jesus Christ and his family are richly reflected in this collection and each writing inspires a deeper trust in Gods infinite ability to care for you, no matter the season. Every person who reads If You Faint Not will certainly be blessed just as we were. God promises never to leave us or forsake us and If You Faint Not is a fulfillment of that promise.
