Excerpt from Letter From the Chief of Engineers to the Secretary of War On the 27th December, 1776, Congress - Resolved, That General Washington shall be, and he is hereby, vested with full, ample, and complete powers to raise and collect together, in the most speedy and effectua manner, from any or all of these United States, sixteen battalions of infantry, in addition to those already voted by Congress; to appoint officers for the said battalions of infantry; to raise, officer, and equip three thousand light-horse, three regiments of artillery, and a corps of engineers, and to establish their pay. That the foregoing powers be vested in General Washington for and during the term of six months from the date hereof, unless sooner determined by Congress. Under this law it is probable, that some organization styled a Corps of Engineers, was established in the Army under the rules and regulations of General Washington. The news of the conflict of the colonies with Great Britain, together with the efforts of our diplomatic agents abroad, soon brought a crowd...
