Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from Hath God Forgotten to Be Gracious: A Thanksgiving Sermon, Preached Before the United Religious Societies of Fisherville, Nov, 26, 1863 The psalmist, in putting the question of my text, did not dream that any one would seriously answer it in the affirmative. In the very next verse he reproves himself for having even dared to hint that God had in anger shut up his tender mercies. Whenever, in the centuries which have rolled away since this psalm was written, unblushing infidelity has ventured the assertion that our Father had forgotten to be gracious, the prompt and emphatic denial of the church, the solemn and impressive silence of the world have borne witness to his mercy and love. In our own land especially the recognition of God's goodness has from time immemorial been spontaneous and hearty. But a change has come over the spirit of the Christian world. It is no uncommon thing now, when the rulers of our State or Nation set apart a day for solemn thanksgiving to Almighty God, to...
